The assembly began with Anirudh by delivering an inspiring thought for the day, emphasizing that small acts of kindness such as a smile or a helping hand can make big difference in someone's life.

A thoughtful Speech on the assembly's topic, explaining simple yet meaningful ways students can help their parents at home, assist friends in need, and support their classmates during school activities. The speaker focused on actions like sharing responsibilities at home, listening to friends' concerns, and working together in class to create a positive environment for everyone.

Students showcased Placards with messages like "Help your Parents," "Support your Friends," and "Be Kind to Classmates." Each placard carried a powerful message that highlighted the theme of the assembly - helping and being there for others.
