Dear Parent,

“At universal, the spirit of patriotism is fostered with great pride and zeal”.

We are celebrating 66th Republic Day in the school on 26th January, 2015. This day is honoured with great joy, pride and vigour across the country as India was also declared Sovereign, Socialist, Democratic and Republic state on this very day.

The school timings will be from 7.30 am to 10.30 am. Attendance is compulsory for grades IV to X and Grades P.G to III shall have a holiday. Please ensure your ward comes to school in his/her regular (grey) school uniform.

The celebrations include performances like skit, songs, speech by students, tableau presentation, etc by the students.

School buses shall ply at regular timing in the morning- pick up time remains the same. Bus service will be available for the children availing the school transport facility. Confirm the pick and drop timings from the respective bus drivers.

Wishing you a very happy Republic Day.

Jai Hind!!

With Best wishes!

Geeta Singh
Principal
