EFFERVESCENCE- A REFLECTION

Imagination , creation and communication together enlighten human minds to become noble souls.Going by this thought Veda Vyasa DAV Public School Vikas Puri organized the English week 'EFFERVESCENCE'-2016. The basic premise is to encourage and enhance the speaking,listening and communicative skills of the students.'One ought everyday atleast to speak a few reasonable words'. The various activities held made the students explore their own self beyond limits and take expressive flights from their regular study schedule into a world of thoughts,wisdom and creativity. After all no one can stop you if you are determined to learn.

8 Nov.

What if instead of a teacher, a computer would have been there to teach you? Of course there would have been nobody to check your homework but at the same time there also wouldn't have been anybody to interact with, in case of any doubt. Much more than this was said by the students of class 8th where they debated on whether learning requires actual classrooms. All the participants were enthusiastic and equally energetic.

10 Nov.

A poem recitation activity was held in classes 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. It was a sight worth watching, little kids with innocence and sweetness in their voice as they recited poems with pomp and energy. They presented poems like "I wonder why", "The animal song" and "Save water". Their zeal and actions added much more to their song. The students of classes 6th and 7th presented the latest English hit songs to mark the celebration.

Students of class 10 debated about grading system and CCE having removed stress from the learning process. Some of the students agreed while some didn't agree with the argument that it rather increased stress due to additional grades in co-curriculars. Be it the supporters or the opposers, everybody was informative in terms of facts and bold in presenting their thoughts.

Whether it's the ban over Maggi or the Smog in Delhi, everything is trolled over social media. Sometime it helps, sometime it doesn't. Students of class 11 debated on the topic of social media helping in spreading awareness to debate on. They were all well updated and gave smart answers to the interjectors.
