

OUR SCHOOL

NEWS LETTER- APRIL 2023

INAUGURAL OF NEW EDUCATIONAL SESSION 2023-24

Dear Students,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you all back to the DAV Mukhyamantri Public School, Pasadaved Masturi, for the start of the new academic session. We hope that you all have had a restful and rejuvenating break and are ready to embark on a new journey of learning and growth.

As we begin this new session, we would like to invoke the blessings of the Almighty with a Vedic Havan on the 3rd of April 2023. The Havan ceremony is an ancient ritual that has been a part of our culture for centuries. It is believed to bring prosperity, happiness, and good health to all those who participate in it.

Our school has always been committed to promoting values that are rooted in our culture and traditions. The Havan ceremony is a way for us to connect with our roots and imbibe these values. We believe that the blessings of the Almighty will guide us and inspire us to excel in all our endeavors.

As we move forward, we want to remind our students that education is not just about academic excellence. It is also about developing character, empathy, and a sense of responsibility towards society. We want our students to be well-rounded individuals who are capable of making a positive impact on the world around them.

We have a dedicated team of teachers who are committed to providing the best possible education to our students. We believe that every child is unique and has their own strengths and talents. Our aim is to provide an environment that nurtures these talents and helps our students realize their full potential.

We encourage our students to be curious, ask questions, and explore their interests. We want them to be active learners who are not afraid to take risks and make mistakes. We believe that every failure is an opportunity to learn and grow.

As we start this new session, we want to assure our students and parents that we are committed to providing a safe and supportive learning environment. We will continue to follow all the necessary protocols to ensure the health and well-being of our students and staff.

would like to extend a warm welcome to all our new students and their parents. We hope that you will find our school to be a nurturing and inspiring place for your child's education. We look forward to working with you and your child in the coming years.

Once again, we wish you all the very best for the new academic session. May the blessings of the Almighty be with you always.

Warm Regards,

Principal,

SHWETA SRIVASTAVA

HANUMAN JAYANTI AND GOOD FRIDAY CELEBRATION

On the 6th of April, DAV Mukhyamantri Public School celebrated Hanuman Jayanti and Good Friday with great fervor and enthusiasm. The event was organized by the school's cultural committee, and it witnessed the participation of students and teachers alike.

Hanuman Jayanti is celebrated every year to mark the birth of Lord Hanuman, who is believed to be an epitome of devotion, strength, and loyalty. On the other hand, Good Friday is a Christian holiday that commemorates the crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ. Both these events are significant for their respective communities and hold great cultural and religious value.

The celebration began with the lighting of the lamp by the school principal, followed by a rendition of the Hanuman Chalisa by the school choir. The atmosphere was charged with energy as the students and teachers sang along with the choir, paying their respects to Lord Hanuman.

This was followed by a speech by the school's religious studies teacher Abha Shukla and student Khushi Singh of Class IX, spoke about the significance of Hanuman Jayanti and Good Friday. They emphasized the importance of devotion, faith, and sacrifice, which are the underlying themes of both these events.

The celebration also included a fancy dress performed by the school's students, which depicted the life of Lord Hanuman and the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. The performance was well received by the audience and conveyed the message of love, compassion, and devotion.

The highlight of the event was a special assembly that was held in the school auditorium, where students from different classes presented various cultural programs.

The celebration ended on a high note and was a great success and served as a reminder of the rich cultural and religious diversity that exists in our society. It also highlighted the need to promote tolerance, respect, and understanding among different communities.

In conclusion, the celebration of Hanuman Jayanti and Good Friday at DAV Mukhyamantri Public School was a joyous occasion that brought together students, teachers, and the community. The event was a testament to the school's commitment to promoting cultural and religious harmony and provided a platform for the students to showcase their talent and creativity.

DR. BHIM RAO AMBEDKAR JAYANTI

Ambedkar Jayanti, celebrated on 14th April, is an important day in the Indian calendar. It marks the birth anniversary of Dr Bhimrao Ambedkar, an eminent social reformer, jurist, economist, and politician. Dr Ambedkar was a visionary who dedicated his life to the betterment of society and the empowerment of the marginalized sections of society. To commemorate this day, the students of our school organized a skit, speeches, and poems, showcasing the life and work of Dr Ambedkar.

The skit, performed by the students, portrayed the journey of Dr Ambedkar from being a victim of discrimination to becoming the voice of the marginalized. It showcased his struggles, his determination, and his achievements. The skit highlighted how Dr Ambedkar fought against the caste system and worked towards the upliftment of the Dalits and other oppressed communities.

The speeches delivered by the students and teachers focused on the teachings of Dr Ambedkar. They emphasized the importance of education, equality, and social justice, as advocated by Dr Ambedkar. The speeches also highlighted the relevance of Dr Ambedkar's philosophy in today's world and the need to continue his work towards building a just and equitable society.

The poems recited by the students reflected the spirit of Ambedkar Jayanti. The poems celebrated the life and work of Dr Ambedkar, and the values he stood for. They also touched upon the struggles faced by the oppressed sections of society and the need for social transformation.

In conclusion, the celebration of Ambedkar Jayanti was a fitting tribute to the life and work of Dr Bhimrao Ambedkar. It was an occasion for the students to learn from the teachings of Dr Ambedkar and to be inspired by his vision of a just and equitable society. It was also an opportunity to reflect on our own values and to renew our commitment towards building a better world.

LMC MEETING OF SCHOOL 2023-24

DAV Mukhyamantri Public School Parasda Ved Masturi held a successful Local Management Committee (LMC) meeting on 15th April 2023. The meeting was headed by Chairman Nanak Chand ji through an online mode due to some unavoidable situation. The LMC meeting was attended by various members, including Mr. Prashant Kumar Sir RO, Mr. Kamal Nayan Mishra Sir ARO, and many other worthy members.

The agenda of the meeting started with introduction of LMC members, and the school principal presented a brief report of the school's performance during the session 2022-23. The principal also presented the action taken report of the last LMC meeting, and various topics such as estimated budget of the session 2022-23, fee concession for the student and exemption of the outstanding fee details.

During the meeting, several other topics were discussed, including the approval for classroom whitewashing, approval for the purchase of audio-visual aids for the Montessori section, recruitment of trained teachers for session 2023-24 , and recruitment security agency were also discussed.

The meeting was conducted in a structured manner, and every agenda point was thoroughly discussed.

The members also shared their valuable suggestions and inputs for the betterment of the school. The meeting ended on a positive note, and it was decided to implement the decisions taken in the meeting as soon as possible.

Overall, the LMC meeting was a success, and the school administration is confident that the decisions taken during the meeting will help in providing better facilities and education to the students.

Mahatma Hansraj Jayanti Celebrations: Honoring the Founder of DAV Movement

Hansraj Jayanti, also known as the birth anniversary of Lala Hansraj, is a significant occasion celebrated on April 19th April every year by DAV institutions all over the country. The day marks the birth anniversary of Lala Hansraj, the founder of the DAV (Dayanand Anglo-Vedic) movement.

DAV Mukhyamantri Public School Parsadaved Masturi recently celebrated the occasion with great zeal and enthusiasm. The event was organized by the school management, staff, and students to pay tribute to the great visionary who dedicated his life to the service of education.

The celebration began with the lighting of the lamp and a Saraswati Vandana. This was followed by a speech by the principal, who highlighted the contributions of Lala Hansraj in the field of education. The principal spoke about how Lala Hansraj, a follower of Swami Dayanand Saraswati, believed that education was the key to the development of society.

The students of the school also paid their tributes to Lala Hansraj through various cultural programs. The students presented bhajan, speech, songs and conducted Vedic Havan.

The celebration of Hansraj Jayanti was not just an occasion to honor the founder of the DAV movement but also a reminder of the values he stood for. The celebration encouraged the students to strive towards excellence in their academics and also to contribute to society through their knowledge and skills.

In conclusion, the celebration of Hansraj Jayanti was a reminder of the importance of education in our lives and society. The occasion was an opportunity to honor the founder of the DAV movement and to inspire the students to work towards a better future. DAV Mukhyamantri Public School Parsadaved Masturi hopes to continue celebrating such occasions and spreading the message of education and its significance in the coming years.

EID CELEBRATION

The school campus was abuzz with excitement as students of all ages came together to celebrate two important festivals: Eid and Akshay Tritiya. The air was filled with the sounds of joy and happiness as everyone got ready for the festivities.

To mark the occasion of Akshay Tritiya, a pottery decoration activity was organized on the school campus. Students from different classes participated in this art and craft activity with great enthusiasm. They were given the opportunity to showcase their creativity and talent by decorating their own pots with various colors and designs. The pottery decoration activity was a great way to celebrate the festival of Akshay Tritiya, which is considered to be an auspicious day for new beginnings and prosperity.

On the other hand, Eid, which is a significant Muslim festival, was celebrated by creating a beautiful scenery painting in the school. The students worked together to create a stunning backdrop that depicted the beauty and spirit of Eid. The scenery painting was a great way to showcase the diversity and unity of our school community.

The celebrations of both festivals were a great opportunity for students to learn about different cultures and traditions. They were able to immerse themselves in the festivities and learn about the significance of these festivals. The art and craft activities also allowed them to develop their creative skills and express themselves in a fun and engaging way.

The celebrations of Eid and Akshay Tritiya were a great success, and everyone had a wonderful time. The school community came together to celebrate these festivals in a joyous and meaningful way. We hope that such celebrations will continue to bring us all closer together and help us appreciate the diversity and richness of our cultural heritage.

Parent-Teacher Meeting and Seminar by IDBI Bank

On 29/04/2023, DAV Mukhyamantri Public School Parsadaved conducted a Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) and a seminar by IDBI Bank for the benefits of students' accounts. The PTM was organized to provide an opportunity for parents and teachers to interact with each other, discuss the progress of the students, and address any concerns related to their academic and personal development.

The PTM was well-attended, with parents and guardians actively participating in the discussions with teachers. Teachers presented an overview of the students' performance and provided feedback on their academic and personal growth. The parents appreciated the opportunity to meet with teachers and get a better understanding of their child's academic progress. They also shared their own perspectives and concerns about their child's progress, which helped teachers to better understand the needs of their students.

On the same day, IDBI Bank conducted a seminar for the students to educate them about the benefits of opening a bank account. The seminar was aimed at encouraging students to learn about the importance of managing their finances at an early age. The bank representatives explained the various types of accounts available, such as savings accounts and fixed deposits, and the benefits of each.

The seminar was very informative and interactive, with students asking questions and getting clarifications from the bank representatives. The students also learned about the importance of saving and investing their money.

Overall, the PTM and seminar were successful in providing parents and students with valuable information. The PTM helped parents to understand their child's progress in school, while the seminar provided students with information about the benefits of opening a bank account. The school is committed to organizing such events in the future to help students and parents make informed decisions about their academic and personal development.

---

PRINCIPAL MESSAGE

Dear Students,

As the summer vacation approaches, I would like to remind you that this break from school offers a wonderful opportunity for personal growth and development. While it may be tempting to spend your days lounging around and taking it easy, I encourage you to consider some productive ways to make the most of your time off.

Here are a few suggestions for how you can optimally utilize your summer vacation:

- 1. Learn a new skill or hobby - Whether it's coding, cooking, painting or a musical instrument, taking the time to learn something new can be incredibly rewarding and enriching.
- 2. Volunteer or intern - Consider volunteering for a local charity or organization, or interning at a company or business that interests you. This will not only give you valuable work experience, but it will also give you a chance to make a positive impact in your community.
- 3. Travel and explore - Summer is the perfect time to get out and explore new places, whether it's a nearby city, a national park, or a foreign country. Traveling can broaden your horizons and expose you to new cultures and ways of life.
- 4. Read and write - Take advantage of the extra time you have to read books that interest you or write your own stories, poems or journal entries. This can help you to improve your writing skills and expand your imagination.
- 5. Spend time with family and friends - Summer vacation is a great time to reconnect with loved ones and create lasting memories. Plan outings, picnics or game nights with family and friends to make the most of your time together.

Remember, how you choose to spend your summer vacation is up to you, but it's important to make the most of this valuable time. So, use this opportunity to learn, grow, explore and have fun!

Wishing you a happy and productive summer vacation!

Best wishes,

Principal,
SHWETA SRIVASTAVA