Aarambh: Talented Students Sponsorship Programme

'Arambh' is a flagship programme initiated by DL DAV Pitampura School Alumnus, which aims to provide scholarship to the students who have the passion and talent to pursue their technical skills. The proposal prepared by the school Alumnus (all 1999 pass out batch) are also the sponsors of the project. The key members of this programme are:

- Mr. Nitin Garg, Co-founder and the partner with Coinmen consultants LLP
- Mr. Gagan Seth, Financial advisor is a certified Broker of Insurance & Mutual Funds
- Mr. Nitin Garg, Importer and trader of Industrial Bearings

The sponsors are going to extend their continuous support over the years for the selected students so that the targeted candidates can get established in life.

The school is empowered by a committed and dedicated Alumni, which is always engaged in assisting the school system not only with physical support but also by generating funds for many activities such as Alumni Meet, DAV United Festival and DUCL. The responsibility of sponsoring for education and the fees of the needy students along with mentoring the aspiring young students for their future endeavors is also shared through this programme.

The school has launched 'Aarambh' one of its kind sponsorship programme to render support and motivation to the student community with the faith that many more will join hands to make this mission and vision a success.
